VETERAN LEAGUE HAS NO GINGER

National Circuit Should Wake Up and Shake Itself, Says Writer.

A National League club official is responsible for the opinion, expressed to the writer, that plans to take the "grandma" out of the Grandma League are in the making; that next year the game of the National League will be played in true Rooseveltian fashion, whether crowded to a corner, writes Ed Wray in the St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

The spectacle of the invertebrate National League displaying a spine is a laugh not yet copyrighted by any writer. As soon as one expects to see a truculent rabbit walk up and kick his hind teeth into the neck of a pig bull, the National League has had to be prodded and prodded into activity, or change from the threadbare costume of ancient days.

Step on the corns of the San Francisco and your reply is a blow on the head—figuratively. Step on the corns of the National League and they take the matter under advisement.

"There you have the gist of the National League weakness," said the official above referred to. "It is not the lack of spirit, but the lack of spirit to be a part of the National League, instead of being an individual. Delay, procrastination and faint heartedness naturally result."

SALT MINERS ARE VICTOR IN GAME

Joplin, Mo., Sept. 19.—Hutchinson won from Joplin again Tuesday in the second game of the best of three series to determine the winner of the second half of 1937 Western league season.

The third game of the series will be played tomorrow in Hutchinson. The winner of the post season series will play the St. Louis Cardinals in the first half of the season, for the league championship.

In today's game Saunders, pitching for Joplin, became angry when umpire Ivey refused to take out of play a ball Saunders claimed was "sandy," and threw the ball into the bleachers. Hutchinson players on first and third were permitted to score.

The score: Hutchinson.....105 150 170—8 3 1 Joplin.....002 009 001—2 4 4 Batteries: Hutchinson, Robertson and O'Brien; Joplin, Hall, Maple, Saunders and Monroe.

WILSON GETS INVITATION. Chicago, Ill., Sept. 19.—President Johnson, of the American League, Tuesday night extended an invitation to President Willard to attend the world's series game between the New York Yankees and the Chicago Cubs.

The invitation, an appropriate memento of the program, will be staged in the president's honor.

S.S.S. PROESITS POWER IN DEALING WITH CATARRH

Don't Get the Spray and Salve Habit.

The experience of nearly every person afflicted with Catarrh is identical. First, usually, what is commonly known as a bad cold seems to "hang on" with considerable stubbornness. The air passages become inflamed and choked up, rendering breathing painful and difficult. There is constant hacking and spitting in an effort to clear the nostrils, the throat becomes irritated and unless the proper treatment is used, the patient is in for a siege.

This will be your experience if Catarrh gets a foothold in your system. Then like thousands of others, you will quickly want to know the best treatment for this dangerous ailment.

But you are in a position now to profit by the mistakes which others have made who have been using the wrong treatment. Do not be led into the belief that because your air passages are stopped up, making it hard to breathe, that you can be permanently cured by the use of sprays, ointments, salves, etc. applied to the locally affected parts.

Similar remedies have been used for years by thousands of Catarrh sufferers and you will not find many who have been cured by this treatment alone. In fact, the disease is getting a firmer hold on their system all the time, because this local treatment can do no more than afford temporary relief.

By using the proper means at the beginning many people could avoid Catarrh entirely, and prevent the disease from getting a foothold in their system. After it gets hold of you, however, it is unwise to temporize and neglect the proper treatment, because Catarrh has a tendency toward the lungs, and everyone knows what a serious condition they are in when the lungs become affected. In fact, Catarrh, in many cases,

NO TRAINING FOR STUDENTS

Delegates to National Collegiate Conference Agree to Cut Expenses.

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 18.—At the meeting of the National Collegiate Athletic Association, held in Washington on August 3, the delegates voted that there would be no pre-season coaching, no training tables, and coaching expenses are to be reduced to a minimum. This means that candidates for the Penna football team will not report to coach Pollock until Friday afternoon, September 25. Five days after that time Penn will play its first game.

On Saturday, October 6, Penn will play the Georgia School of Technology at Atlanta. This is the first time that a Penna football team has ever played in the south, and this game is only possible because of the cancellation by West Point on that date.

In order to develop the proper team work there will be the hardest kind of practice from September 25, on to the time the squad leaves for Atlanta, and only when the team is in the best physical condition will be able to make a place on the team.

The revised schedule is as follows: October 2, Albright or Franklin and Marshall; October 6, Georgia Tech.; at Atlanta; October 13, Washington; October 20, Bucknell; October 27, Pittsburgh; November 3, Lafayette; November 10, Dartmouth at Boston; November 17, Michigan; November 24, Cornell; November 26, Cornell.

When Billy Sunday Was Fast On Bases In National League

Los Angeles, Calif., Sept. 18.—"Back in 1888," said Billy Sunday, the white-bag evangelist, who is conducting a drive on Satan here, "I was playing shortstop for the Chicago White Sox and we had a crackerjack club. They said that I was the fastest man on the bases in the league."

"Archie Latham, who played for the White Sox, was the fastest man in the American Association. 'We staged the race in St. Louis. I beat him. We ran a hundred yards and I broke the tape 13 feet ahead of him. Six clocks took our time. Three registered 10 seconds flat and three 9.5 seconds. I guess that was going some, huh? There was a lot of money bet on that race, but I didn't get any of it.'"

CARDNER DOES GOOD PITCHING

If Portland's pitchers had put up the brand of ball earlier that they have been showing, at least the Beavers might now be pennant contenders instead of fighting for a chance to get in the first division. One of the surprises has been the work of Harry Cardner since he joined the team. His ball pitched the ball that has any man on the staff.

SAUNDERS IS EXTRAVAGANT. Joplin, Mo., Sept. 19.—A purse of $600 made up by fans to present to Roy Saunders for his shutout of Hutchinson in two games last Sunday will be returned to the donors as the result of Saunders' throwing the ball into the bleachers, it was announced.

Saunders was fined $100 by John Savage, owner of the Joplin club.

JIMMY CLABBY LOSES ABOUT

Ex-Middle Weight Champion Loses to Albert Lloyd in Australia.

Advice just at hand by this department from Australia state that Jimmy Clabby, the American middleweight, fought a hard 20 round draw with Albert Lloyd, the light-heavyweight champion of that country. The battle took place at Snowy Baker stadium in Sydney and was witnessed by nearly 10,000 people.

Matty Smith, the Racine, Wis., featherweight, after winning over Eugene Volairs, the French light-weight, at Brisbane, was stopped in two rounds by Lew Edwards, at Melbourne.

Tommy Uren, the Australian welterweight champion, fought Harry Weston, a New York, for the title at Melbourne, and won in 20 rounds on points. Stone put up a clever contest, but Uren was too strong for him.

Fritz Holland, of San Francisco, was beaten by Fred Kay, a former champion, in a 10 round contest at Sydney.

BEAVERS BREAK SEASON RECORDS

Portland broke two season records in its series with Vernon recently. The two records are for the longest game of the season, and the longest game in a series. The longest game in a series was the 1936 game between the Portland Beavers and the San Francisco Giants, which lasted 18 innings. The longest game in a series was the 1936 game between the Portland Beavers and the San Francisco Giants, which lasted 18 innings.

CANADA HAS A CHAMP WALKER

George Goulding Wins Amateur Championship at St. Louis Meet.

The genial tourist of the variety who composed Coey's famous army is an adept at hoofing it when there is a famine in side-door Pullmans. He can shamle across country about as niftily as the next one, you'll admit, but what he doesn't know about walking would fill a young library.

Any of the wayfarers who may doubt this statement will do well to get into communication with one George Goulding, of Canada, who knows more about the art of heel-and-toe locomotion than anybody else in the world.

At the recent A. A. P. championship in St. Louis this Goulding person opened the eyes of a big crowd by knocking the wraps from beneath the collective records for the three-mile walk.

The 21-mile record holder and Olympic champion, shattered Goulding's 21-mile record, which was 21 minutes 15 seconds, which was quite a considerable crimp in a walk that had stood for so many seasons. And remember, Goulding is no youngster, for he has been an exponent of the art of walking for more than ten years and is still the best of the bunch.

Such a scrap could not fail to appeal to the red-blooded fan. A championship walk, after all, is a championship walk and that's what makes the attraction.

There are plenty of folks in this country who think Fulton can beat the long lumbering westerner who sent Jack Johnson going to defeat. There are plenty of them who can take a record book and show just how much faster Fulton is than Willard.

Their main argument is that Willard never in his life defeated a good man with the single exception of Jack Johnson, and then they are prone to add that it took 14 rounds for the big, husky white man to lay out the fat old man—Johnson.

Fulton's record, as a matter of fact, does read far better than Willard's. If Jess had the string of victories by knockouts plastered after his name in the pugilistic record he would be far more respected as a champion. He hasn't.

Willard will sign to battle Carl Morris, clearest of every punch in the six rounds of the mill, spell the words that go with a championship battle. Willard will sign articles to meet the huge Minnesota brawler just as certain as the proper side to pull off the belt is found. Willard has started—and there is no reason to doubt him—that he will promote his own mill. He probably will. He probably will do all the offering, picking or arena and all the preliminary work, he has the money and the nerve to tackle it.

Most of the wins are over men that it requires an effort to recall. And it doesn't take a stretchy memory to recollect that little Gunboat Smith once put on a party that nearly wrecked big Jess out in California.

Fulton has won some notable victories and has performed in rather ill fashion at times. As a whole, however, his record is worthy of consideration, and should get him the bout with the champion. It probably will.

Willard has won some notable victories and has performed in rather ill fashion at times. As a whole, however, his record is worthy of consideration, and should get him the bout with the champion. It probably will.

HARRY FRAZEE ONLY BLUFFING WHEN HE MADE GIGANTIC OFFER

I F the Red Sox should happen to cop the American League title after all, Harry Frazee, their owner, wouldn't live to enjoy it, in the opinion of Ben Johnson, the American League head was discussing the offer Frazee made of $1,000 to each member of the club in the event they did the seemingly impossible.

"That offer of Frazee's was partly a cheap piece of theatrical advertising," said Johnson. "If the Red Sox would win Frazee would fall dead."

Regarding the world's series, Johnson announced that all transportation problems in case the Giants and White Sox are opponents will be arranged. He said that five special trains probably would be needed and that railroad officials probably would run them on 24-hour schedules, the fastest time between Chicago and New York.

The big series is practically certain to open on Oct. 3. If New York wins the series will open here, on the other hand, it will open in New York. Johnson said non-resident fans would be given secondary consideration in the matter of seats.

The game in San Francisco, Portland and Honolulu contribute practically nothing to the support of major league baseball, and it is not fair to the regular patrons to turn him down at a world's series and sale in favor of out-of-town folk," he said.
